A Tide Pool

One day
a boy was standing
near a pool

It was a
tide
pool

Then he took the starfish
and
placed it in his hand

The star
fish was very small
not bigger than his thumb

The
starfish
was wet
and it was golden
colour

He thought
to take the fish home
and gift it
to his
lovable
person

But as he was holding it , the skin of the fish began to dry . So he decided to place back the fish in his sea side home

He thought
placing back
the fish in its place will be the best gift
he would give his friend
because if he takes the fish
home it will die without water

He hopes
who ever
finds him
next will leave back
the fish in its place
just as he did

THE BEST
GIFT HE IS GIVING
HIS
THAT HE SAVED
THE LIFE
OF A STARFISH .

The end
Thank you
