1.A

*It is in the news that all these pitiful kin
Are to be bought out and mercifully gathered in
To live in villages, next to the theatre and the store,
Where they won't have to think for themselves anymore,
While greedy good-doers, beneficent beasts of prey,
Swarm over their lives enforcing benefits
That are calculated to soothe them out of their wits,
And by teaching them how to sleep they sleep all day,
Destroy their sleeping at night the ancient way.*

i. The prose selections, Deep Water and Indigo, bring out the importance of overcoming fear, in order to be able to lead our lives successfully.

Imagine yourself to be a motivational speaker who has to address high school students. Write this address in 120 – 150 words elaborating on occurrences from the two texts to inspire your audience and to convince them about the importance of overcoming fear.

You may begin like this ...

Good morning, students!

We all know what it's like to be afraid. Fear is our body's natural response to a perceived threat or danger. But when ...

Value Points

- Fear immobilizes us and prevents us from progressing – as in the case of William Douglas – due to his fear of water he could not lead a normal life – could not go fishing, canoeing, etc. Similarly, due to their fear of the Britishers, the peasants of Champaran could not take a stand for their rights.
- Need to face our fear, devise a plan and work through it – William Douglas worked through his fear rather than giving into it. When the peasants gathered around the courthouse in Motihari, it was a step towards overcoming their fear.
- Require determination – persistence – it took Douglas months to overcome his fear of water and learn swimming. It took nearly a year to get justice for the peasants in Champaran.
- strength in unity when fighting a common fear – only when the people in Champaran were they able to overcome their fear and fight for justice.
- But once overcome, one is free to live his / her life to the fullest.

Sophie watched her back stooped over the sink and wondered at the incongruity of the delicate bow which fastened her apron strings.'

The prose selection, Going Places includes this telling comment about Sophie's mother.

In Aunt Jennifer's Tigers, we are told that -

*'The massive weight of Uncle's wedding band
Sits heavily upon Aunt Jennifer's Hand.'*

Imagine a conversation between Sophie's mother and Aunt Jennifer. Create this exchange with reference to the two extracts given above.

You may begin the conversation like this ...

Sophie's mother: Your embroidery is so beautiful. Do you love tigers?

Value Points

- Aunt Jennifer shares about her loss of identity; use of art as a means to express her deep-down desires and feelings.

- Sophie’s mother shares information about her servile role – all her time is spent in meeting the needs of the family; has no life of her own. Sophie’s mother stays home while all others go to witness Danny Casey’s football match.
- Both feel burdened with responsibilities.
- Both have domineering husbands; They do not have a say in the family matters.
- There seems to be no likelihood of any change in their status.

ii. Both Bama and Zitkala Sa experienced the harsh reality of discrimination in their childhood. Instead of letting it pull them down, they found a way to overcome it. You wish to include a cameo* of both in your upcoming blog post.

As a part of the research, compare and contrast the experiences faced by the two and their response/s to these experiences, in 120-150 words. [Clue: Include the similarities and differences in the discrimination they faced - their feelings - determination to overcome – success]

*a short description that neatly encapsulates someone or something

Value Points

- Both of them faced discrimination; Zitkala Sa was discriminated against because of cultural differences while Bama faced discrimination due to her caste.
- Zitkala sa rebelled and refused to get her hair cut. She put up a strong fight, though had to give in finally. Bama was enraged and wanted to go and touch the packet of vadai to teach a lesson to the landlord. But was guided by her elder brother to calm down. He showed her the path overcome discrimination.
- Both of them worked hard to excel in education.
- Both succeeded as writers among other things; They have written much against discrimination and evils of oppression, thus continuing the fight for justice for their communities.
