

Lesson 2 : Its all a cycle

Worksheet 1

I. Write true or false.

1. The stages of the life cycle remain the same for all living beings.

2. A caterpillar emerges as a butterfly from the hard, smooth, shiny covering around itself called a chrysalis. _____

3. Humans begin their life cycle as a child. _____

4. The stage in a human between the ages thirteen and nineteen is called an adolescent.

5. The pupa hatches from the butterfly egg eat a lot to grow and shed their skin once every few days. _____

6. The eggs of the turtle hatch into baby turtles called hatchlings. _____

II. Choose the correct answer.

1. In a frog's life cycle, the young one that hatches from an egg that looks like a fish and breaths through gills is called _____

a. larva

b. tadpole

c. caterpillar

d. pupa

2. After the incubation period by the mother hen, a _____ hatches from the egg.

a. worm

b. chick

c. caterpillar

d. pupa

3. The life of a butterfly starts as

- a. a worm
- b. a tadpole
- c. an egg
- d. a pupa

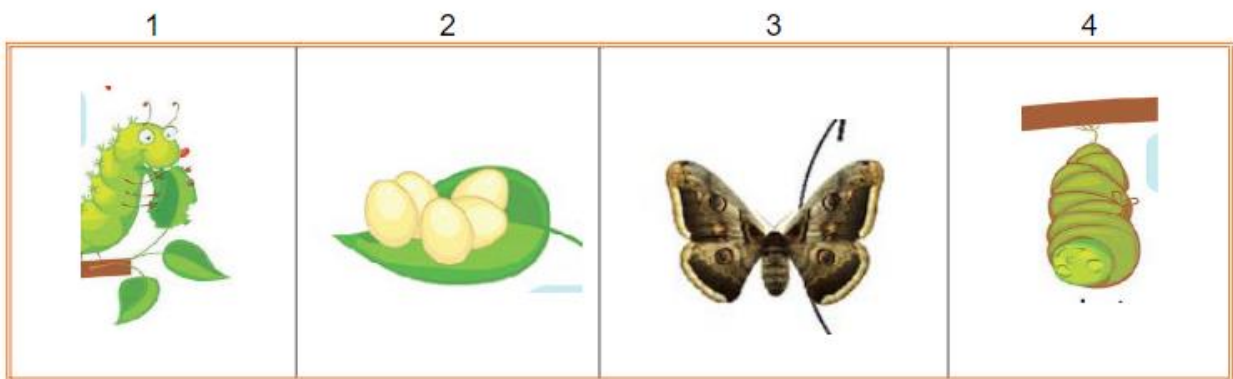

4. Which of the following is true for the young one of a hen?

- a. It is of the same size as that of the adult
- b. It has well-developed feathers or a crown
- c. It resembles the adult
- d. It resembles fish and not the adult

5. In the life cycle of a butterfly, the stage after the tiny worm had eaten enough and attached itself under a leaf transforming to become an adult is called_____.

- a. caterpillar
- b. tadpole
- c. larva
- d. pupa

III. Observe the images. Write the correct order of the images in the space provided.

The correct sequence is 2, _____, _____, _____.