

PRODUCTIVITY

INTRODUCTION

- Productivity is the output of any production process, per unit of input.
- To increase productivity means to produce more with less.
- In factories and corporates, productivity is a measure of the ability to create goods and services from the given amount of human resource, capital, land, knowledge, time or any combination of these above.