

Components of DBMS:-

→ Disk storage - has data, indices, statistical data and data dictionary which is used for data storage.

→ Storage manager - buffer manager, file manager.

Transaction manager and authorization manager for managing the files in storage area.

→ Query processor processes the request given by user. It processes SQL, languages and other data management languages.

→ Various users are depicted in above diagram.