

COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING-II B.SC. NURSING

Unit V: National Health and Family Welfare Programmes Health Agencies

Activity 1: Short Answer Quiz (5 minutes)

1. Name one national health programme in India. (E.g., RNTCP, Pulse Polio Programme)
2. What is one role of a nurse in the National Family Welfare Programme? (E.g., Providing family planning education, conducting follow-ups)
3. Identify one health scheme mentioned in the syllabus. (E.g., ESI, CGHS)

Activity 2: Crossword Puzzle (5 minutes)

Clues:

- Across 1: Programme for tuberculosis control (5 letters: RNTCP)
- Across 2: Health scheme for employees (3 letters: ESI)
- Down 1: Programme for polio eradication (5 letters: PULSE)
- Down 2: Nutritional programme for children (4 letters: ICDS)

Activity 3: Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs) (5 minutes)

1. Which programme targets malaria control?
  - a) National AIDS Control Programme
  - b) National Anti-Malaria Programme (Correct)
  - c) National Leprosy Eradication Programme
  - d) Mid-day Meal Programme
2. What is a focus of the National Family Welfare Programme?
  - a) Road safety
  - b) Reproductive and child health (Correct)
  - c) Industrial development
  - d) School infrastructure
3. Which is a health scheme in India?
  - a) CGHS (Correct)
  - b) National Education Scheme
  - c) Urban Development Plan
  - d) Agricultural Subsidy
4. What is a nurse's role in national health programmes?
  - a) Designing medical equipment
  - b) Community health education (Correct)
  - c) Managing hospital budgets
  - d) Conducting surgeries

Activity 4: True/False (5 minutes)

1. The Pulse Polio Programme aims to eradicate polio. (True)
2. The National Mental Health Programme focuses on physical health. (False)
3. Nurses participate in immunization under national programmes. (True)
4. The ESI scheme is unrelated to health care. (False)
5. The ICDS programme supports child nutrition and development. (True)

Activity 5: Yes/No quiz (5 minutes)

1. Does the RNTCP focus on tuberculosis control? (Yes)
2. Is the National AIDS Control Programme focused on cancer? (No)
3. Do nurses conduct health education in national programmes? (Yes)
4. Is the Mid-day Meal Programme a health scheme? (No)
5. Does the CGHS provide health services for government employees? (Yes)

Activity 6: Short Answer Quiz (5 minutes)

1. Name one international health agency. (E.g., WHO, UNICEF)
2. What is one role of the Indian Red Cross? (E.g., Disaster relief, health promotion)
3. Identify one national health agency in India. (E.g., Family Planning Association of India, Tuberculosis Association of India)

Activity 7: Word Scramble Puzzle (5 minutes)

1. OHW (WHO)
2. CEFINU (UNICEF)
3. AFIP (FPAI)
4. ORCSES (UNESCO)

Activity 8: Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs) (5 minutes)

1. Which agency focuses on global health coordination?
  - a) UNESCO
  - b) WHO (Correct)
  - c) FPAI
  - d) Indian Red Cross
2. What is a role of UNICEF?
  - a) Industrial development
  - b) Child welfare (Correct)
  - c) Urban planning
  - d) Financial auditing
3. Which is a national health agency in India?
  - a) World Bank
  - b) Tuberculosis Association of India (Correct)
  - c) UNDP
  - d) CARE
4. What does the Family Planning Association of India promote?
  - a) Agricultural reforms
  - b) Family planning (Correct)
  - c) Road safety d) School curriculum

Activity 9: True/False (5 minutes)

1. WHO is an international health agency? (True)
2. The Indian Red Cross focuses only on education. (False)
3. UNICEF supports child welfare globally. (True)
4. The Family Planning Association of India is an international agency. (False)
5. The Central Social Welfare Board is a national agency in India. (True)

Activity 10: Yes/No quiz (5 minutes)

1. Is WHO an international health agency? (Yes)
2. Does the Indian Red Cross focus on child welfare exclusively? (No)
3. Does UNICEF support global child health initiatives? (Yes)
4. Is the Tuberculosis Association of India an international agency? (No)
5. Does the Family Planning Association of India promote family planning? (Yes)