

Blood Pressure Measurement

Across

5. Keep patient's arm supported at level of their _____.

9. For an adult patient, what type of measurement is preferred?

10. When taking a manual BP, inflate the cuff approx. _____ points beyond the patient's average BP.

11. For readings over 170/100 or less than 90/50 (for adults), there should be a _____ hand-off to a provider.

12. If you use a cuff that is too _____, the reading can be too high.

Down

1. Wait at least how many minutes prior to taking BP reading? (Minimum)

2. For patients ages 3-11, a _____ reading is preferred. (automatic or manual).

3. If BP is more than 140/90, the measurement will need to be _____.

4. BP should not be measured on top of _____.

6. While BP is being taken, patient should not _____.

7. Patient should be seated with feet and back _____.

8. If patient is new to Mosaic, take and record BP on both arms. At return visits, BP should be measured on the arm that had the _____ reading.