Āshrama or the Stages of Life/19HST105 – Essence of Indian traditional Knowledge/S.KAVIPRIYA/ECE/SNSCT

Āshrama or the Stages of Life

- The Ashrama system denotes the Hindu scheme of life according to which different stages in the life of an individual are well ordered.
- The average life span of an individual is considered to be 100 years and it is divided into four stages each stage having a time span of 25 years.

These four āshramas are:

- 1. Brahmacharyāshrama or the Stage of Studentship
 - This is the first stage of life.
 - It is meant for acquiring knowledge, developing discipline and moulding character.
- This stage starts with the ceremony called upanayanama or investiture with the sacred thread. Now the person became a brahmachārina, leading a celibate (unmarried life) and strict life as a student at the home of his teacher.

- 2. Grihasthāshrama or The Stage of Householder
 - This stage starts at marriage when the student has completed his studentship and is ready to take up the duties and responsibilities of household life.
 - In this stage the individual gets married, earns money and begets children. The individual pursues wealth (artha) and pleasure (kāma) within the limits of the moral law (dharma).
- 3. Vānaprasthāsharma or The Stage of Retirement from Active Life—
 - After discharging all the duties and obligations as a householder, the individual enters into the ٠ Vānaprastha stage.
 - It consists of the third quarter of person's life.
 - In this phase, after retiring from active life, the individual dedicates himself to a life of spiritual contemplation.
 - He leaves his home and goes to the forest to become a hermit. ٠

4. Sanyāsāshrama or The Stage of Renunciation or Wandering Mystic—

- This is the last stage of life.
- Now the individual leaves his hermitage and becomes a homeless wanderer (sanyāsin) with all his ۲ earthly ties broken.
- The sanyāsin aspires and acts to attain liberation only. •
