RECOMMENDATIONS

Recommendations are commonly used in technical and general areas. One can offer one's recommendations to the users.

Some useful expressions for making recommendations are as follows:
- It is recommended_____
- It is suggested_____
- It is advised_____
- It is important_____
- It is necessary to_____
- It is imperative_____
- You should/must/ought to_____

The word originates from Latin 'recommandare', meaning particular purpose or job.

Thus a recommendation is a suggestion that something is good or suitable for a particular purpose or job.
